1. Comment. Other reports indicated that on and after 28 May 1954 medical units of the Third Shock Army possibly assembled at the Schweinrich troop training grounds for combat training. The units probably came from Magdeburg on two troop trains on 28 and 31 May and returned on 2 and 4 June 1954.
2. Comment. The troop train carried light AA guns and several trucks.
3. Comment. Observations at the Wittenberge railroad station indicated that the troop train carried elements of the 10th Gds RL Regt of the IX Mtz Rifle Corps with 16 rocket launchers to the Schweinrich troop training grounds on 9 June 1954.
4. Comment. These troop trains carried AA guns and armored scout cars of the 25th Tz Div to the Altengrabow troop training grounds for combat firing practice.
5. Comment. Other reports indicated that, in the first half of June 1954, numerous AAA units rotated between the Wustrow AAA Range and their home stations or airfields. The AAA units which arrived at Wustrow in early May returned after termination of combat firing practices, while other AAA units arrived on and after 8 June 1954. AAA units observed at Wustrow prior to 16 June 1954 included:

Army

Of the 12th Gds Tank Div from Neuruppin. From 4 May to 2 and 5 June 1954 respectively. Arrival on the troop trains

Of the 63d AAA Div (US) from Fuerstenwalde. Since 8 June 1954. Arrival on one troop train.
